CONGRESS ABOUT TO RESUME BUSINESS.—MR. MARSH'S CLAIM THE LAND BILLS SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT.—NAVAL AFFAIRS, ETC., ETC.

WASHINGTON, June 9, 1856.

A large number of Congress men have arrived from Cincinnati, and it is anticipated that a quorum of both Houses of Congress will be present to-morrow, and business will be resumed. Mr. Leach, of Banks has returned, and resumed the conduct of the chair.

The Senate has passed a bill giving Mr. Marsh, our Foreign Minister at Constantinople, the sum of $23,000 extra compensation; but thereby hags a tale.

appropriations opposed by Senator Breachard, with so small amount of severity, principally on the ground of the ex Minister having received between forty and fifty thousand dollars for his four years' term about half of which, the Senator from Pennsylvania's committee estimated, had been expended in trips to Egypt, Italy, Germany, and Italy. A strict time is expected when this bill comes before the House. Mr. March is a favorite of the negro worshippers, and of course his claims will receive their support.

The amount of Texas debt paid, to date to-day, was $5,428,768.

The President has signed the bills appropriating land for railroads in Wisconsin, Michigan, Alabama and Louisiana.

The United States ship-of-war Plymouth is to be situated at the Naval School as the practise ship, in lieu of the Preble, found to be too small. She sailed from Norfolk on Saturday last, for Annapolis. Robert H. Wymann, Lieutenant Commanding.

The new steam frigate Colorado will be launched at the Government Navy Yard on the 10th inst. The President and Secretary of the Navy will be in attendance.

Messrs. Cass, Douglas and Cobb, of Georgia, leave for Philadelphia by the morning train, and will speak at the Buchanan meeting there to-morrow night.

Mayor Magracer was inaugurated this morning and entered upon the duties of his office. It is said to be his intention to decapitate every Know Nothing official holding office until his disposal. The democrats are firing a salute of one hundred guns in honor of his inauguration.

THE NATURALIZATION LAWS.

On motion of Mr. ADAMS, (dem.) of Miss., the bill to amend the naturalization law was made the special order for Saturday next.

THE PATIFICATION OF KANSAS.

Mr. TRUMBULL, (uliger worshipper) of Ill., introduced a bill to restore order and peace to Kansas, proposing to Mr. THURMELL explained that the only object of the bill was to extend the Territorial government of Nebraska over Kansas, and abolish the present government of Kansas. He said that the Legislature of Kansas had no right to pass any law, and that the only way to get rid of the present government of Kansas was to extend the Territorial government of Nebraska over Kansas, and abolish the present government of Kansas. He thought this proposition worthy of some consideration, as a state of things now exists in Kansas which no good man must ignore. He did not care about having no government, but he did not wish to see the Territory of Kansas without a government. He did not wish to see the Territory of Kansas without a government.

merits of the law of Congress. The very fact that both Territories were created under one law, and that in consequence of the same law the same rights were claimed, and controversy, shows that the fault is not in the law but in foreign interference. Strife and violence were fruits of that interference in Kansas, but there had been no such interference in Nebraska, and therefore there had been the natural consequence. If his colleagues thought the Nebraska bill was understood differently in the North and the South, he had better read the bill. He would not say that the principles of the Currency. He would say that the principles of the democratic party were proclaimed North, South, East and West--were alike proclaimed by the same party. He would say that the same party in the East said trouble in any case, it and nobody but the exceptions who were opposed to it, and who were described as persons who were not to be satisfied with it. The principles of the democratic party were the same everywhere in 1860, and confirmed by the action of Mr. Pease in 1862. Mr. TRUMBULL replied that the thing was covered up by the Congressional Convention very much as it was in the Nebraska bill. The language was ambiguous, and each side was understood in its own sense.

After some further debate between Messrs. Trumbull and Douglass, concerning the merits of the Nebraska bill, territories. The late LATHAM BOARD.

Mr. FORD, of Va., addressed the Senate on the bill amending the act to promote the efficiency of the navy. It was said, multiplicate that: errors had been committed and injuries inflicted on the officers, and he should support such measure as would most effectively rectify such errors and around that the President has no power to clemency any commissioned officer in the army or navy, except in his executive capacity of carrying into effect the laws of Congress and sentences of the courts.

Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, June 9, 1860.

PROPOSED REMOVAL OF THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.

By the reading of the journal of Saturday it appeared that Mr. FORD, (miller) of Ohio, had given notice of his intention to introduce a bill for the removal of the seat of government from Washington to some point in Ohio within five miles of Cincinnati.

Mr. JOSE, (dem.) of Tennessee, moved to strike out the notice, and saying that he could not then appear, as no quorum was present on that day.

Ninety-two members only voted, when, being no quorum, the House adjourned.

Renewal of the War in Kansas.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9, 1886

The latest Kansas dates confirm the intelligence of a fresh outbreak of hostilities. Captain Pattis' company having been overpowered by a force of free State men, General Whitfield left Westport on the night of the 2d, at the head of 100 men in pursuit. They were supposed to be about forty miles from Westport, on the Santa Fe road. Colonel Sumner also left for the scene of disturbance with eight companies of dragoons. The Chicago Tribune has a letter dated Lawrence, May 31, which states that the free State settlers are in imminent peril that forces from Missouri are again invading the Territory, and farmers have been obliged to organize in companies to guard their property against bands of marauders.

ST. LOUIS, June 9, 1886.

The account taken from an extra of the Kansas City that nine abolitionists and thirteen pro-slavery men were killed in an encounter between a band of 180 abolitionists and Captain Pattie's company, proved to be an exaggeration. Captain Pattie and McGee, reported dead, are alive, and but two or three persons were killed in all. Capt. Pattie's company was captured, the free State party being greatly superior in numbers. Gen. Whitfield, with 100 men, has gone to their rescue.

Kansas Meeting at Weathercher.
WEATHERCHER, Pa., June 9, 1855.
The meeting held here on Saturday to take into consideration the troubles in Kansas and other matters connected with the aggression of slavery, was very largely attended. John S. Bowen, who was attacked to the Kansas Commission as Clerk, addressed the meeting. Appropriate resolutions, denouncing the outrages at Washington and Kansas were adopted by acclamation.

not, not upon its permission, but upon the glorious privilege of being citizens of our great republic. Your presence here today has been the crowning glory of a fully consecrated life by the edict of a vast concourse assembled during the past week at Cincinnati. Upon your similar career in Europe the voluntary expression of sympathy had been drawn in material mode, and your actions controlled by an army with banners. How unlike he posted at Cincinnati, where delegates from all over the world have gathered under the protection of the constitution and laws, and harmonious deliberation upon subjects of vital importance to this country. Cincinnatus two weeks ago I think I should have made you a single speech; but now I have been placed upon a platform of which I am heartily approve, and that can speak for me.

I am glad to see you here, and to know that you are party, and not simply James Buchanan, I must square my conduct according to the platform of that party, and not to the person who occupies it. I am glad to see you sufficiently broad and national for the whole democratic party. This glorious party now, more than ever, demands that it is the true conservative party of the Constitution and of the people.

PHILADELPHIA, June 9—P. M.
